Maldives

The Maldives is known as one of the top honeymoon spots across the world but it's equally suitable for a romantic proposal. While the islands' natural beauty is enough to get a definite 'yes' here, you can top it all off by taking your (hopefully) bride-to-be for a stay at the Jumeirah Vittaveli. Ranked as one of the world's most romantic resorts, this luxurious property is offering special dinner plans for Valentine's Day. As a fun feat before or after the proposal, caricature artist, Somrak Puttharuksa will move across the resort, turning vacationing lovebirds into pieces of art that they can take home as a souvenir from their romantic holiday.

Sumba Island, Indonesia

There's a reason why Caitlyn Jenner's son, Brody Jenner, proposed to his girlfriend at this stunning location in Eastern Indonesia filled with uninterrupted views of the sea and surrounding rice fields. Sumba Island is renowned for its natural beauty, and its remote location provides a beautiful proposal spot for those who want something more exclusive and exotic. For those looking for a proposal spot on the island, Nihiwatu is a luxury resort 400 km from Bali, recently awarded the No. 1 Hotel in the World by Travel + Leisure magazine.

Song Saa Private Island, Cambodia

Song Saa is Khmer for 'Sweethearts', fitting for anyone looking to propose on this private island. Song Saa offers a tropical seascape with alabaster beaches and rainforests, a perfect venue for an exclusive and intimate proposal. A number of private locations on Song Saa's twin islands are ideal to pop the question and after she says 'I do,' Song Saa Private Island's exquisite overwater restaurant and lounge is a stunning setting to raise a glass of champagne in celebration and indulge in an evening of fine dining.

Bali, Indonesia

Bali is always a good idea for those looking for a romantic getaway to pop the question. Away from the hustle and bustle of the popular tourist spots, those who want something more private and luxurious can opt for Amankila resort where after arriving by helicopter, can experience exceptional private dining experiences and romantic excursions that can be tailored for each couple's taste. And if you haven't proposed on the ride there, be sure to work with the staff to create the perfect proposal.

Dubai, United Arab Emirates

If your lady is a lover of luxury, you can't go wrong whisking her away to Dubai - one of the most luxurious cities in the world, and for obvious reasons. Dubai offers plenty of gorgeous restaurants, venues and hotels to pop the question such as the iconic Burj Al Arab. Staff here can arrange one of the most romantic and intimate proposal packages offered across the world. This could include a moonlight swim, spa packages, suites with the most beautiful views of the city and of course, staff that keep you full on champagne and strawberries throughout your entire stay.

En route from Sri Lanka to Bangladesh and India

Not all proposals need to take place in one particular location. For those who want something a bit more creative, why not propose en route from one exotic place to another? Give her the ultimate romantic getaway with a trip on the Silversea Discover Expedition Fleet. This ship sails from Sri Lanka to Bangladesh and India. Routes include views of remote villages, perfect beaches and local habitats. You'll also get to check out the world's largest mangrove forest near the Bay of Bengal. It's a romantic trip that not only allows you to celebrate your love, but to experience the world around you with your one and only.

Bintan Island, Indonesia

If you are looking for another sailing experience to propose, plan a 45-minute ferry ride from Singapore to Indonesia's Bintan Island. The ride offers exquisite views of the island's private white sand beaches. There's a particularly lucky spot upon The Sanchaya's private beachfront reminiscent of the powder white sands at The Maldives, popular for wedding proposals. The secluded dining set-up is fringed with myriad flickering candles shaped in a giant heart and the silhouettes of swaying palm trees.

Osaka, Japan

For those who want a city proposal with a cultural backdrop, look no further than popping the question in Osaka, where you'll find a perfect combination of city and culture. For city girls who would want a more lively proposal, venues such as the Intercontinental Osaka offer romantic restaurants that allow you to wine and dine your love before popping the question amongst one of Japan's most scenic spots.
